BUILDER memberships are available to any person who is, or has been in the business of building or rebuilding homes, apartments, schools, commercial, industrial, or other structures normally related and appurtenant to a community or in land development, and who subscribes to the CSBA Code of Ethics and is of good character and business reputation, and who has been continuously in the current business for a minimum of 1 year.

ASSOCIATE memberships are available to any person engaged in a trade, industry, or profession related to housing and not inconsistent with the objectives of NAHB or any of its affiliates; and who subscribes to the CSBA Code of Ethics and is of good character, and who has been continuously in the current business for a minimum of 1 year.

Code of Ethics

*To retain membership status, all CSBA members must abide by the following Code of Ethics.
Please read before signing and submitting this application.*

By signing this application and having my membership approved, I understand that I will be expected to abide by the following Code of Ethics. The purpose of this code of ethics is to ensure a high level of honesty and fair business practices among association members. Members agree to strive to meet the following ideals:

1. Our paramount responsibility is to our customers, our community and our country.
2. Decent housing should be within the reach of every family.
3. Honesty is our guiding business policy.
4. High standards of health, safety and sanitation shall be built into every home and rental unit.
5. Members shall deal fairly with their respective employees, subcontractors, and suppliers.
6. As members of a progressive industry, we encourage research to develop new materials, techniques, equipment and strive to improve methods of single family and multi-family financing, to the end that every home owner and resident of a rental dwelling may get the greatest value possible for every dollar.
7. All sound legislative proposals affecting our industry and the people we serve shall have informed and vigorous support.
8. We hold inviolate the private enterprise system and the American way of life, by refraining from any act intended to restrain trade or suppress competition, and to thereby promote private enterprise and guarantee equal rights for all.
9. As a member of Central Susquehanna Builders Association, I agree to:
 - Maintain the highest standard of professional conduct.
 - Maintain the confidentiality of privileged information entrusted or known to me by virtue of my office.
 - Refuse to engage in or approve of activities for personal gain at the expense of my industry or profession.
 - Use every opportunity to improve public understanding of the role of the building industry.
 - Describe accurately and honestly the price, materials and standards of workmanship in a contract.
 - Use only materials agreed to or exceeding the quality of those specified in the contract.

- Contractors: Begin the construction process as soon as feasible upon award of a contract and proceed diligently to completion of the project without unnecessary delays.
- Promptly acknowledges and rectifies obvious defects in products, materials and workmanship within a reasonable time frame.
- By striving to attain and maintain high professional standards through continued education, quality of workmanship within a reasonable time frame on warranted products supplied by the contractor.

This Code of Ethics for members of the Central Susquehanna Builders Association has been adopted to promote and maintain the highest standards of service in the building industry and conduct among its members. Adherence to these standards is required for membership in the Association and serves to assure public confidence in the integrity and service of the Central Susquehanna Builders Association and the building industry. These responsibilities are assumed freely and solemnly mindful. They are part of our obligation as members of the Central Susquehanna Builders Association, Pennsylvania Builders Association and the National Association of Home Builders.
